The Donald R. Hilsendager Endowed Scholarship Fund
Department of Kinesiology
Temple University

The objective of this fund is to provide scholarship aid to academically talented graduate students majoring in Kinesiology. The fund was established in honor of Dr. Donald R. Hilsendager who retired in 1996 after 33 years of service to Temple University. During his tenure, he served as Chair of the Department of Physical Education from 1978 to 1980 and Dean of the College of Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance from 1981 to 1996.

Award Scholarship:

- The scholarship consists of a $500 cash award.

Selection Criteria:

- Candidates must be matriculated graduate students in the Department of Kinesiology.
- Selection will be based on academic merit as determined by the selection committee.

Process:

An application may be obtained from the Kinesiology Department Chair or academic advisors. A minimum of two letters of recommendation from teachers, community members, or peers must be attached to the application, and should address the criteria for the award. The applicant must also submit a typed, double-spaced 500-word biographical sketch and goal statement. Interviews with the scholarship finalists may be required. The deadline for submitting a scholarship application is on the first Friday in March annually.
Dr. Carole A. Oglesby Endowed Scholarship
Department of Kinesiology
Temple University

The objective of this fund is to provide scholarship grants in honor of Dr. Carole A. Oglesby. Dr. Oglesby has been a respected professor in the Department of Kinesiology at Temple University for many years and is world renowned in the field of sport psychology. The scholarship grants are intended to benefit one or more graduate students who are matriculated in the Kinesiology program at Temple University.

Award Scholarship:  Approximately $5,000 for tuition or for research purposes (half awarded in the Fall and the remainder in the Spring).

Selection Criteria:

* Candidates must have applied for acceptance or been accepted into the graduate program within the Department of Kinesiology.
* Recipients must be matriculated in the graduate program within the Department of Kinesiology.
* Candidates must demonstrate scholarly and leadership promise in the topic of African-American women in sports.

Process:

An application may be obtained from the Kinesiology Department Chair or academic advisors. A minimum of two letters of recommendation from teachers, community members, or peers must be attached to the application, and should address the criteria for the award. The applicant must also submit a typed, double-spaced 500-word biographical sketch and goal statement. Interviews with the scholarship finalists may be required. The deadline for submitting a scholarship application is on the first Friday in March annually.