Chief Executive Officer
The Beck Institute

The Beck Institute for Cognitive Behavior Therapy (CBT) is a leading international source for training, therapy and resources in CBT. The Center for Training delivers workshops to a worldwide audience of mental health professionals, researchers and educators, and the Philadelphia-based Center for Psychotherapy provides state-of-the-art therapy and consultations. Dr. Aaron T. Beck developed Cognitive Behavior Therapy in the 1960’s. Dr. Beck and his daughter, Dr. Judith Beck, established Beck Institute to provide both innovative psychotherapy and comprehensive training opportunities for professionals worldwide.

At this time in the organization’s growth, the Beck Institute has created a new leadership position to manage its outward-facing work and to help position the organization for exciting opportunities. The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) will work as a partner with the President. The CEO will identify and promote CBT training and consulting opportunities, targeting audiences in academic and behavioral health, both nationally and internationally. This position manages the team of professional staff.

Based in the Philadelphia suburbs, Beck Institute is on the web at: www.beckinstitute.org.

Experience Required:
- Demonstrated achievement creating and implementing strategic initiatives
- Prior experience in positions leading projects, including national and international initiatives, to successful delivery
- Experience communicating to a wide range of audiences
- 10+ years of public or private sector management experience
- Knowledge of marketing communications
- Demonstrated success in business development
- Graduate degree required

Please send expressions of interest by 11.20.14 to:
Leadership Recruiters
Email: emily@leadrecruit.com (designate Beck)