PERSONAL ASSISTANT--SUPPORT TO PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES
Values Into Action – Philadelphia, PA
Are you looking for meaningful work where you can be proud of what you do? Where what you believe matters? Do you want to CHANGE THE WORLD? Together we can!

We are a progressive, non-profit organization who supports people with disabilities throughout Eastern PA and we are hiring! Current areas of hire include Northeast Philadelphia and Delaware county, among others.

You will be supporting individuals with disabilities in their own homes and communities. Services include direct support in the form of community involvement and/or accommodation with all activities of daily living including personal care, communication, transportation and inclusive social and recreational activities.

This is a very rewarding position, perfect for someone with a keen interest in special education, psychology, sociology, social work and related fields.

No experience necessary, as we will fully train. The only pre-requisite is having compassion and wanting to make a difference in someone’s life!

Schedule is flexible, and college students of graduate and undergraduate levels are encouraged to apply-- we will work around your schedule as much as possible!

Weekend, evening, late afternoon, and overnight availability may be necessary.
