

ANN ELIZABETH DOLLOFF, C.T.R.S., M.Ed.

Education

Graduate Courses in Special Education (16 credit hours), University of New Hampshire, Durham, New Hampshire

M.Ed. In Recreation and Leisure Studies, emphasis in Therapeutic Recreation
Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

B.S. in Therapeutic Recreation, School of Nursing, Summa cum Laude
University of Southern Maine, Portland, Maine

Employment

Department of Rehabilitation Sciences, College of Public Health, Temple University, Philadelphia, PA

Instructor (NTT), August 2012-present

Duties include: Teach undergraduate courses in the therapeutic recreation and occupational therapy programs, coordination of senior internships, assist with assigned department projects and serve on departmental, college, university and community committees.

Pennsylvania's Initiative on Assistive Technology, Institute on Disabilities at Temple University, Philadelphia, PA

Assistant Director, June 2005-August 2012

Information & Referral/Special Projects Coordinator, Jan-Nov 2004

Duties include: Coordinate and implement assistive technology device demonstrations, presentations and trainings, develop and lead trainings and presentations statewide, supervise contract compliance of subcontractors statewide, organize and report on regional and statewide data, hire and supervise program staff, provide daily management of program, and perform other administrative duties.

Cooperative Extension Services and Department of Recreation Management and Policy, University of New Hampshire, Durham, NH

Extension Associate Professor and Specialist, June 1999 – January 2004

Duties include: Coordinate inclusive youth camping programs statewide at 3 locations (day and overnight programs), coordinate and lead statewide and regional educational trainings in youth development, risk management, and working with youth at-risk and with disabilities. Faculty appointment with Department of Recreation Management and Policy, teaching introductory undergraduate course on disability awareness and adapted recreation every semester.

Department of Health Studies, Temple University, Philadelphia, PA

Undergraduate Program Coordinator, September 1998-May 1999

Duties include: Advise undergraduate students in academic, career, and personal issues, and teach as adjunct faculty in therapeutic recreation program.

Variety Club Camp and Developmental Center, Worcester, PA

Executive Director, July 1988-September 1998

Duties include: Manage the facility, program, fiscal, and personnel areas of a year-round recreational facility for children who are disabled, their families, professionals, and students, write and manage grants in excess of $750,000.00 over an 8 year period, work intensely with high school and college students, work extensively with children and teens with physical, developmental, cognitive and emotional disabilities, in a variety of settings and activities.

Related Experiences

Adjunct faculty, Fall 2009, 2010 & 2011. Department of Rehabilitative Sciences, Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Instructor TR 2201: Developmental Disabilities and Therapeutic Recreation.

Adjunct faculty, Spring 2007 through Spring 2009, and Spring 2012. Department of Kinesiology, West Chester University, West Chester, Pennsylvania. Instructor Kin 254: Disability Studies: An Interdisciplinary Introduction

Volunteer, 1990-2009. American Camp Association, New England, Keystone Regional and New Jersey Sections. Taught Standards Visitor Course.

Volunteer Adapted Ski Instructor, 1990-present. PA Center for Adapted Sports, Philadelphia, PA

Adjunct Faculty, 1987-1999. Department of Recreation & Leisure Studies and Health Studies, Temple University, Philadelphia, PA. Instructor of undergraduate courses in adapted sports, recreation, and aquatics

Professional Presentations

Dolloff, A. (2015 & 2014, May). AT in Inclusive Education. Arcadia University, Glenside, PA.

Dolloff, A. (2013, December). AT in recreation (exhibit table and presentation). Consortium for Citizens with Disabilities, District of Columbia.

Dolloff, A. & Vliet, N. (2013, November). AT in recreation. Muscular Dystrophy Association Muscle Summit annual conference, King of Prussia, PA.

Dolloff, A. & Elokda, K. (2013, September). AT & TR: We belong together. American Therapeutic Recreation Association Annual Conference, Pittsburgh, PA.

Dolloff, A. & Leonhart, C. (2013, May). AT in out-of-school activities. Variety Club Camp, Worcester, PA.

Dolloff, A. (2012, June). Introduction to iPads for recreation therapists. 44th Annual TR Institute. Grantville, PA.

Dolloff, A. & Prioli, J. (2012, January). Low-tech solutions for older adults. PA Housing Finance Agency. Statewide webinar.

Dolloff, A. & Prioli, J. (2011, August). Low-tech solutions for the workplace. Business Leadership Network. National webinar.

Dolloff, A. (2010-11, November). iPads as tools for recreation therapists. Eastern Pa & New Jersey Therapeutic Recreation Association. Princeton, NJ.

Dolloff, A. (2011, November). Intro to assistive technology and assistive technology in Recreation. PA's Education of All Coalition (PEAC) conference. Philadelphia, PA.

Dolloff, A. (2006-11). Assistive technology and allied health professions. Philadelphia University, Occupational Therapy Graduate Program and University of the Sciences Physical Therapy Program. Philadelphia, PA.

Dolloff, A. (2010, December). iPads as assistive technology for youth with autism and other disabilities. Variety Club Autism Program, Upper Moreland School District, Wissahickon School District. Philadelphia region.

Dolloff, A. & Reinsfelder, A (2008, June). Assistive technology in the workplace: A train-the-trainer training. Virginia Assitive Technology System, Richmond, VA.

Dolloff, A. (2008 & 2007). Assistive Technology and intellectual impairments. Three hour training for case managers. Philadelphia Mental Retardation Services, Philadelphia, PA.

Dolloff, A. & Elokdah, K. (2007, March). Therapeutic recreation and state AT act programs: Time to collaborate. ATRA Mid-year Conference, Arlington, VA

Conlon, C., Dolloff, A. & Gregory, P. (2005, March). Tips for successful inclusion of campers with special needs. ACA Tri-State Camping Conference. NY, NY.

Dolloff, A. (2003, April). Making inclusion work in summer camps. New England Training Institute (NETI). Portsmouth, New Hampshire.

Dolloff, A. (2002, October). Moving ahead: Preparing the youth development professional. National Teen Institute. Waterville Valley, NH.

Apfel, C, Dolloff, A. & Fabrizio, S. (2002, May). Helping campers and staff achieve success: Working with youth with special needs in NH 4-H Camps. Children, Youth and Families At-Risk (CYFAR) National Conference. New Orleans, LA.

Certifications,
Affiliations
& Grants

Certified Therapeutic Recreation Specialist, National Council for Therapeutic Recreation Certification (NCTRC). Renewed May 2011.

Crisis Prevention Intervention (CPI), 2001

Chair, Complaint Resolution Committee, American Camp Association, Keystone Region Section, 2004-2009

Elected member, American Camp Association-New England section, Board of Directors, 2003

Elected member, New Hampshire Camp Directors Association, 1999-2003

Education Chairperson & Special Populations Representative, American Camping Association, Eastern Pennsylvania Section Board of Directors, 1994-1998

Funded Grant Proposals:

2012: Craig H. Nielsen Foundation, $20,000.00 (PIAT)

2010: Craig H. Nielsen Foundation, $20,000.00 (TR Program)

1998: Pew Charitable Trusts, $161,000.00 (fourth funding cycle)

1997: Child Development Foundation, $15,000.00

Montgomery County Intermediate Unit, School to Work Transitional Program,
$2,750.00

1996: Pew Charitable Trusts, $160,000 (third funding cycle)

Child Development Foundation, $19,000

ITT Hartford, $1,000